Main Point

No matter who you are... no matter what your place in the world may be... whether your circumstances are good or bad.... God is present, He is watching and caring for you. He sees you and deeply values you! And even though things today may seem difficult and hopeless and you may feel unworthy or marginalized in the moment, God has a special call on your life and His desire is to be with you and to bless you in surprising ways as He leads you.

1. What do you understand about God’s promises and covenants of the Bible?

2. If the Lord says something in His Word about His plans, do you tend to believe it at its face value or you tend to question/debate him? Why?

3. Share an experience when you knew what God asked of you, and yet, you still chose to do things your way? (Optional, Personal Question)

4. What do you understand ‘God’s grace’ is? (Jn. 1:17, 1 Cor. 15:57)

5. What is something new that you learned about Abram, Sarai, and Hagar today?

6. How do you relate to each one of them?

7. What does it mean to you that “God Sees You”? (16:13)

8. How will you live considering what you heard from today’s Scripture study?
